AMOS, A HERDSMAN CALLED OF GOD TO BE A PROPHET

LESSON TEXT—The Book of Amos.
GOLDEN TEXT—I heard the voice of the Lord saying, Whom shall I send and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I, send me.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Shepherd Who Became Great.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A Shepherd Who Became Great.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Answering God's Call.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Work That Serves God.

I. The Call of Amos (1:1).

He was a herdsman and gatherer of sycamore fruit (7:14). As a herdsman his income was not sufficient, therefore, he supplemented it by selling sheep for profit. He was not a prophet by succession, neither was he trained in the prophetic schools. He sat not at the feet of any great teacher. God called him from a humble life to stand before the king. A prophet is one who forthtells more especially than foretells. His primary work was proclaiming God's message rather than predicting events to come.

II. To Whom Was Amos Sent (1:1)?

God sent him primarily to Israel, the northern nation. Though he was from Judah, his ministry was to be primarily to Israel. It was during the reign of Jeroboam II when the northern kingdom had reached its highest state of prosperity. This prosperity, as is usually the case, was accompanied with a condition of luxury, corruption, and gross wickedness.

III. Amos' Message.

1. Sins denounced (2:6-8; 6:1-6).

(1) Avaricious greed (2:6-8).

a. Sold the righteous for silver (v. 6).

The judge for a bribe of silver declared the innocent to be guilty.

b. Sold the poor for a pair of shoes.

The word "shoes" doubtless means sandals, the price of which was comparatively small.

c. Punts after the dust of the earth (v. 7).

The word "pant" means to eagerly desire. So avaricious had these men become that they even grasped after the earth which the downtrodden poor cast upon their heads in mourning their misery.

d. Turned aside the way of the meek.

These grasping rich men turned aside those who did not stand up for their rights.

e. Licentiousness (v. 7).

It was not merely the case of falling into sensuous sin but indulgence with a definite purpose of insulting God and dishonoring his holy name.

(2) Reckless security (6:1-3).

They were living in a "fool's paradise" and closing their eyes to the approaching storm of judgment predicted by the prophet. They regarded their city as impregnable. The strength of a nation is its righteousness, not its wealth and armaments.

(3) Luxury (vv. 4-6).

Their luxury expressed itself in:

a. Extravagant furniture (v. 4).

They had beds of ivory, which means perhaps wood inlaid with ivory.

b. Laziness (v. 4).

Many stretched themselves on their couches, living lives of indolence.

c. Feasted on delicacies (v. 4).

They bought what they desired regardless of its cost.

d. Adorned their feasts with music (v. 5).

They sang idle songs, even invented musical instruments for this purpose.

e. They drank wine (v. 6).

They drank from bowls, indicating excessive drinking. Though their feasts were adorned with refinement of music, they ended in drunkenness.

(4) They failed to grieve for Joseph (v. 6).

Joseph here stands for Ephraim and Manasseh.

2. The remedy proposed (5:4-9).

The prophet called upon them to return to God. He said, "Seek ye me and ye shall live." The implication is that while as yet the divine judgments are stayed an opportunity is offered for them to turn to God. "Seek" means applying for help. The time to repent is while judgment is stayed. In their turning to God they were to renounce:

(1) Idolatry (vv. 5, 6).

They were to turn away from the places of idolatry—Bethel, Gilgal, and Beersheba. God's judgment was to strike these places.

(2) Cause to pervert judgment (v. 7).

Turning judgment to wormwood implies the bitterness of the perversion of judgment to the injured.

(3) Cease to dethrone righteousness.

Leaving off righteousness is thought to mean that unrighteousness was allowed to take its place. He now for the third time urged them to seek the Lord.

Praise the Lord

God is the Lord—his loving kindness and his tender mercy are beyond all my thought! I will therefore praise him loudly, sweetly, with my whole heart, and with the buoyancy of ecstatic love.—Joseph Parker.

Trifles

"In conduct do not make trifles of trifles. Record the smallest action as being either right or wrong, and make a conscience of little things."—Spurgeon.

Job work done at this office.

Around Five Forks

This section still needing rain, farmers cutting tobacco. Mr. William Fulcher cutting tobacco for the past week reports a fine crop for the dry season; it is also stated he has a good corn crop; wheat was a fair yield in and around this section.

Mr. Arthur Gilliam and wife still on the sick list.

Mrs. William Fulcher has visitors recently Misses Florence Watson, Mabel Glenn Nellie Wilkerson and Mrs. Geo Covington.

We regret to hear that the recent hail destroyed everything in the line of vegetation on the farm of Mrs. Tom Watson; great damage is reported from many other places.

The writer was in town a few days ago and saw corn not over two feet high being cut up for feed and this was cured on the stalk. Let the farmers all sow some kind of feed for late Fall and early Spring.

Mr. Linwood Scott, of Philadelphia, has been on the sick list.

We are glad to report Mr. Robert Holmes and wife are much improved since the cool spell set in; it is to be regretted that he has to move on account of his wife's health; it is reported he has a fine position.

Mrs. R. L. Fulcher was taken suddenly ill Sunday, 17th, and had to call in a doctor.

Evergreen

What do you find to cook is the words now, but we should be thankful we have enough to keep us alive. The Lord will provide.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brown, ing and children, of Richmond, were the guests Sunday of Mrs. Browning's mother, Mrs. J. R. Lee, who we are sorry to say is not so well now.

Mr. Elijah Farrar, who spent last week in Roanoke, has returned to his home near here.

Mrs. O. P. Farrar was Sunday guest of her friend, Mrs. Lewis, in Farmville.

Mr. W. B. Thomas, a guard at the convict camp in Amherst, is spending his vacation at his home here.

Miss Dorothy Cawthorn, of Alexandria, is visiting relatives here and at Spout Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Stapleton are moving to the village this week.

We were glad to see Mr. Hunter Glen at church Sunday and hope he will continue to improve.

Little Miss Fay Etta Harvey is visiting here cousin, Mrs. Red Nuckols, in Lynchburg.

Miss Nedra StClair, who has been visiting Miss Madisan Lee and other relatives, returned to her home in Roanoke Monday. We will miss Ned, and hope she will come back soon.

There will be a lawn party at the Methodist Church here next Saturday, Aug. 30th, beginning at 5 o'clock. We will appreciate your presence and help.

Forest View

The farmers in this vicinity have begun to cut tobacco. We hope the prices this time will save the farmers with a poor crop.

Hunter, son, Garland, daughter, Rachael, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Moore, Mr. Edgar Moore, of Gladstone, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lee and little Catherine, of Wesley Chapel, Master Thomas Odor, Edd Moses and son, Lyle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin, Mrs. A. D. Marshall and baby, Dorothy Smith, spent last week with Mrs. George Cocke, near Phenix, while there she visited her aunts, Mesdames Norman and Sylvester Pugh, at Charlotte C. H., Mr. N. D. Marshall and son, Dewitt spent last Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Cocke. Mrs. Marshall accompanied them home.

Misses Hattie and Ruby Pugh have been teaching summer school in New Jersey and returned home last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ford and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pankey spent last Sunday with the formers daughter, Mrs. Ewers, while there they motored around to see some of the interesting places among one was Timber Lake, the resort which is getting to be so popular.

Mrs. Myrta Marshall is suffering with neuritis, hope she will soon be better.

Mrs. Jim Collins, near Red House, died last week, was buried last Saturday. She was a sister of Mr. Leonard Cawthorn. We extend to the family our sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Fore, daughter, Mary Susie and Mrs. Jannie Driskill, of Victoria, visited in the homes of N. D. Marshall and J. A. Martin last week.

Mrs. Lawrence Laughlin and little daughter, Hellas, of Lynchburg, are spending this week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ford.

Last week while Mr. Marvin Moses was sawing down a tree for a saw-mill his helpers saw handle came off an caused his end of the saw to cut into his leg, cutting him above the knee. He had to be taken to the doctor on account of bleeding so freely. We hope he will soon be so he can walk around.

Pamplin

The Bible Study Circle met in the home of Mrs. John Gilliam on Tuesday evening. The meeting was led by Mrs. R. O. Baldwin, taking as the scripture lesson, the Book of Deuteronomy, after an interesting program the hostess was assisted in serving a delightful ice course by her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Ligon. The September meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. R. D. Baldwin, Mrs. Clem Chambers as leader.

Rev. John Cunningham preached at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning. His sermon was greatly enjoyed.

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. White are spending their vacation on the Eastern Shore.

We deeply regret that our friend, W. A. Swann, Jr., continues ill at this time. We trust that he will soon be speedily restored to health and strength.

Wills "Good Time" to All, but Plans Go Astray

Marquette, Mich.—"Everybody is to have a good time," were the final instructions left in his will by John M. Young regarding his funeral. He set aside funds for musicians who were "to play a good lively tune at the grave, not a sad one," and "candy and gum for the children." But nobody had the good time for the will was denied in Probate court on the ground that it had been improperly witnessed.

Pale and Weak

"I THINK Cardui is a wonderful medicine, for I improved greatly after taking it," says Mrs. A. W. English, of R. F. D. 4, Roanoke, Va. "When I was just a girl of 13, my mother gave this medicine to me, and it did me a great deal of good. I was weak and run-down. After I had taken Cardui awhile, I felt much better. "In 1924, my health was poor. I felt miserable, and hadn't enough strength to do housework. It took all my willpower to keep up. I was pale and weak.

"I got Cardui again and took it. My improvement was wonderful. I can recommend Cardui to others, for my health was so much better after I had taken a course of the Cardui Home Treatment." E-4(2)

Mrs. J. P. Martin

Mrs. Alice Martin, 57, wife of J. P. Martin, Appomattox, died Tuesday morning at 8:45 o'clock, in Lynchburg, at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. A. Blackwell, where she had been visiting since August 10. Death was caused by heart trouble.

Mrs. Martin is survived by her husband and the following children: Judson, Pryor, Eldridge, John Gem, Acie and Billy Martin and Miss Hazel Martin, all of Appomattox. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Mrs. S. R. Martin, Mrs. L. H. Wooldridge and Mrs. L. E. Giles, of Appomattox, Travis Martin, of Richmond, and Mrs. G. W. Williams, Mrs. Isabel Schreiber, Mrs. A. A. Blackwell and Miss Willie Martin, and Purvis Martin and Julian Martin, all of Lynchburg.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. Thompson at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. And interment was made at the family burying ground at Chas. Mard in's, attended by a large crowd of friends and relatives.

IT'S WISE TO CHEVROLET CHOOSE A SIX

Announcing a new production record

2,000,000 Chevrolet Sixes now on the road

Since January, 1929, Chevrolet has produced and sold over 2,000,000 six-cylinder automobiles—nearly five times as many as any other manufacturer has ever built in an equal length of time.

These 2,000,000 buyers have chosen Chevrolet because it offers many desirable qualities not obtainable in any other car so low in price—

—the smoothness, silence and flexibility of a modern six-cylinder valve-in-head engine—the greater comfort and roadability of a modern, full-length chassis—and the style, safety and distinction of bodies by Fisher.

Yet, despite these fine car advantages, the Chevrolet Six is unusually economical. Its gas, oil, tire and upkeep economy is unsurpassed. And any model can be bought for a small down payment and easy monthly terms! Come in today. Learn for yourself why two million buyers have agreed—"it's wise to choose a Six."
